Nancy Dagher, Executive Director of Naples Historical Society, brings over twenty-five years of experience in international business development, sales management, and marketing. After receiving a fellowship from Motorola to attend the Kellogg School of Business, she served as an expatriate Director of Global Cellular Network Business Development in London and Dubai. Nancy led a sales and marketing team to bring GSM cellular infrastructure to Asia, Europe, and the Middle East. She is accomplished in strategic planning, budgeting, sales, fundraising, and project management.

As Founder and CEO of her own nonprofit consultancy (2001-2024), Nancy understands the demands of running a small business. Highlights of some of the companies and charities she established or consulted with include: the Foundation of the Collier County Medical Society, the Naples International Film Festival, and The Stroke Recovery Foundation, plus more. For the National Center for Mission and Exploited Children, she mobilized a consortium of 32 businesses, led a press conference to roll out a disruptive online protection software program, NETSMARTZ, which all private and public schools in Collier County adopted. Nancy is a natural at networking and is respected in the community as a graduate of Leadership Collier and Bonita and is a member of the Forum Club.

For the last 8 years, Nancy has worked within the Golf and Country Club industry, refining her skills in finance, strategic planning, building capital reserves, and Board governance. She leads her teams with emotional intelligence and is the proud recipient of three scholarships from the Club Managers Association of America in 2022 and 2023. Her skills and certifications will contribute to the continued success of the Naples Historical Society.

Nancy is an inaugural member of the Rotary Club of Bonita Beach Sunset. Over the years, her club was instrumental in creating international grants, developing opportunities for educational exchange, and leading its post-Hurricane Ian recovery efforts. In her free time, she is the proud parent of a daughter who is an Intellectual Property attorney in California. Nancy likes to cook, swim, and travel, and she has called Naples home for more than 23 years.
